

Esher Place Residents Broadband

networking your community

07860 863 017

esher-place@gmail.com

Will my existing BT TV service and set top box need changing?

Basically, no, whether you decide to stay with BT as your fibre Internet Service Provider or change to another. If you elect to switch, your set-top box may require a restart to function fully, and you will lose access to proprietary BT premium content and BT sport.

If you continue with BT as your service provider, then all your existing content and sport services will be available as at present.